

Champagne reception to mark launch

A CHAMPAGNE reception was held to launch the world premiere of the musical, Powder and Paint by CODS, Crediton Operatic and Democratic Society at Queen Elizabeth's Academy.

Among those present were James Bulmer (producer), Ant Stevens (writer/director), Mike Heath (composer), Mike Canning (musical director), Mike Palmer (production co-ordinator), members of CODS and former members, local guests, members of the press and others.

One of the guests was Jilly Greed of Stage Entertainment Touring Productions, who is the director of Holiday on Ice and marketing and public relations company, One Voice Media and PR.

London-based Show producer, Julian Stoneman, a former member of CODS, of Julian Stoneman Associates also attended.

Alan Quick

Some of those who helped make it happen, from left, Frances Heath, Mike Heath (composer), Jan Bulmer, James Bulmer (producer), Ant Stevens (writer/director) and Judy Stevens. AQ 0441